BLESSED WILDLAND FIREFIGHTERS

Bless those men and women,
Who risk their lives, who come together
One team united to fight the blazing fires.

The most valued and respected group of soldiers
To even walk this earth,
They're not fighting people, no governments, no nations
They're fighting worthier battles,
They're fighting wildland fires.

Many go out to fight the blaze
Knowing well the risks involved,
In these battles across the nations.
Glad when they can come back home,
With heavy hearts remembering
The times when there're few who don't.

So here's to those of many colors who wear the gold,
Give them the strength, the knowledge, the endurance
To continue the fight of wildfires,
May they return again, home to me.
